- (a) This is a continuous offering commercial paper program consisting of short-term promissory notes. Figure represents the maximum amount of short-term notes that are authorized to be outstanding at any one time. The proceeds from the issue of short-term promissory notes by the issuer under the commercial paper program will be used for the issuer's general corporate purposes.
- (b) The notes are offered on a continuous basis to or through the dealers either as agent for the issuer or as principal who then resells the notes to investors. Accordingly, it is not practicable for the Issuer to determine the number of investors who beneficially own the notes as of any given time.
- (c) Notes are typically offered and sold to investors or dealers at par (without paying any sales commissions or deducting any discounts).

 Depending on market conditions, however, the issues may from time to time pay the dealers sales commissions or sell notes less a discount from the purchasing price. Since it is impracticable for the Issuer to estimate whether any such commissions will be paid or discounts deducted over the life of the commercial paper program, for purposes of this Form D it has assumed that all notes will be sold at par.
